

SCHOOL TERM VACATIONS AND EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

The scholastic year comprises of two terms, i.e. from April to October and end of the term i.e. from November to March.

There are three vacations namely – Summer Vacation of one month i.e. In May / June , Puja Vacation of four weeks i.e. In October / November and Christmas Vacation of two weeks i.e. in December / January. These Vacation will be mentioned in the holiday list along with the National and Festival holidays.

There will be Two Terminal Examinations in the scholastic year. The First Terminal and the final Examination . The First Terminal Examination will be held after the Puja Vacation and the final Examination sometime in February / March.

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE FOR CLASSES I – V

There will be class tests and weekly test on Mondays, beside the terminal examination. Class tests will be conducted by the subject teacher as per their convenience before the midterm and before the midterm and before the final examination, to evaluate the progress of the students about the chapter and subject to be tested for Class test and Weekly tests. Marks obtained in each test will be recorded in the test copy to be duly signed by the guardian / parents and returned within a specific time.

Every student must appear for the class test and weekly test, as 30% of the Marks of class test and Weekly tests, 70% from the terminal tests will be taken and the students will be assessed on -100% marks per subject during the mid term examination and in the similar manner for the final term examination.

In all the examination maximum of 40% question will be unseen, thorough preparation will be required for this. No average marking will be done.

Home works and Class works will be internally assessed and graded.

If the child is sick, they should not be sent to attend school for the sake of examination. There is no provision for Re-test. Pass marks in each Subject is 45%.